Cohen's Lottery &amp; Exchange Office.

HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, July 22, 1824.

Prompt Payment of Prizes.

We mentioned in the last Register, the payment of One half of No. 20835 a prize of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS drawn in the Grand State Lottery on the 24th ult.—since then One of the Quarters of the great Capital of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, (No. 15631) has been presented, and the Cash instantly paid to the fortunate holders, Messrs. A. Hickerson and Jno. H. Clarke of Oak Hill, Fauquier Co. Virginia—One Half of the TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLAR prize (No. 8028) has also been paid at COHEN'S OFFICE in Richmond, where it was presented, being more convenient for the owner, Mr. James Crowder of Spring Forest, Northampton County, N. Carolina—One Quarter also of the same fortunate number, has been presented and paid at COHEN'S OFFICE, Norfolk to the holder, a gentleman of that Borough. No other of the Capital prizes has yet been brought in—the CASH is ready and we hope in our next to be able to announce the presentation and payment of the whole of the remaining Capitals, as by that period, time enough will have elapsed for the most distant of the fortunate adventurers to have presented their tickets.

Extensive distribution of Prizes

In the Register of the 25th ult. we mentioned the unparalleled success attending the investments of distant adventurers at COHEN'S OFFICE, in the Grand State Lottery. We have not yet had permission from all the owners, to give their names to the public, but will, in a subsequent Register, as soon as we are allowed to do so—in the mean time, however, for the information of the public, we will mention the various sections of the United States where the great Prizes fell, viz :

No. 15,631, the great Prize of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, sold at COHEN'S OFFICE in Shares—One Half held in Crawford County, Georgia—One Quarter in Fauquier County, Virginia, and the other Quarter in Savannah, Georgia.

No. 8,028, a Capital Prize of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, also sold in Shares at COHEN'S OFFICE—One Half held in Northampton County, N. Carolina—One Quarter in Norfolk, Virginia, and the other Quarter at New Lisbon, Ohio.

No. 20,835, a Capital of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS, also sold in Shares at COHEN'S OFFICE—One Half owned in Kingston, New Jersey—One Quarter in Shelbyville, Tennessee—One Eighth in Warrenton, N. Carolina, and the other Eighth in Northampton, Massachusetts.

No. 21,880, a Capital of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, also sold in Shares at COHEN'S OFFICE—One Half in Richland District, South Carolina—One Quarter at Louisville, Kentucky—One Eighth in Rensselaer County, New York, and the other eighth in the City of Baltimore.

This splendid distribution of Prizes not only shews the astonishing success attending purchases made at COHEN'S OFFICE, but is also remarkable from the circumstance of every share of the Capital Prizes being owned by DISTANT ADVENTURERS, except an Eighth of the 5,000 Dollars, which is held by Mr. Isaac Camp, cabinet maker in Baltimore.

Another drawing of the MONUMENT LOTTERY (the tenth) took place yesterday afternoon—the official list of which will be found on the opposite page—no prize came out higher than 100 dolls. and this was sold in a whole ticket at COHEN'S OFFICE. This patriotic and popular scheme is now very interesting, only six drawings remain to complete it—the drawing will be continued on the 11th of next month; this will afford our friends at a distance, who hold small prizes in any of the lotteries, the opportunity of sending them on to be renewed in this scheme, the object of which being one in which the whole American people are interested. The capital prizes are $20,000—$10,000—$10,000 &c.

Tickets, - $ 12 00	Quarters, - $ 3 00
Halves, - 6 00	Eighths, - 1 50

Orders from any part of the United States, either by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the Cash or prizes in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application, addressed to J. I. COHEN, JR.

Sec'y to the Manag'rs—BALTIMORE,

Grand State Lottery, No. III.

On the 4th page of this day's Register, we have the pleasure to present the Scheme of the STATE LOTTERY, No. III. It will be noticed that the amount of the Scheme is not so large as the last, and that though the great Capital is not of such magnitude, yet the completion we anticipate will be accomplished in less time, and the Prizes of sufficient brilliancy and attraction for the present times. One line of the Scheme we particularly admire; it is the 30 Prizes of 1,000 Dolls. each! which is an unusually large number of Prizes of that denomination—the line also 20 Prizes of 500 Dolls. each, is also an attraction—these two combined, will give FIFTY IMPORTANT PRIZES to adventurers, independent of the great Capitals of 40,000, 20,000, 10,000, &c.

The Tickets and Shares are now preparing, and we shall give due notice when ready for sale—and also, when the first advance on the original prices will take place.

Halves, Quarters, and Eighths.

The great success attending share tickets in the Grand State Lottery has caused a very spirited demand for shares in the popular scheme of the MONUMENT LOTTERY, which is the only one now drawing in Baltimore—we shall endeavour to keep a supply of Halves, Quarters and Eighths, as well as whole tickets, throughout the lottery—the wheels are now very interesting—the great Capitals of $20,000—$10,000—$10,000: still undrawn.

Caution to distant Adventurers.

Direction of Letters.—We beg permission to request our friends and customers residing in distant places, to be particular in directing their letters to J. I. COHEN JR. No 114 Market St. BALTIMORE. It will thereby prevent mistakes in being sent to another office, the name of which on paper, appears similar, and to which we understand, several letters have lately been directed on the supposition that the name was ours.

GENERAL LA FAYETTE.—The arrival of this noble friend and benefactor of our Country may be hourly expected, an event that has been looked for with the liveliest sensibility and with the purest feelings of joy and gratitude, by the American people. Capt. Robinson of the packet ship

Bayard, arrived at New York from France, informs that the General was to have embarked in the Bayard, but he could not get ready in time; he will take passage for New York (or Boston,) if a suitable vessel can be obtained, with his son, George Washington La Fayette about the 1st of July.

Preparations have been already commenced by the Corporations of Boston and New York to give him a reception worthy the claims his presence should command. In New York, (says the Advocate) the Common Council have already secured for him a suite of splendid apartments in the City Hotel, and the fine corps of young gentlemen called after his name, we presume, will mount guard if he will accept their services, and the attention and voluntary respect of the freemen of the country in arms, cannot but prove acceptable to the veteran patriot.

The attentions due to General La Fayette, are of no ordinary character.

The 19th of October will be 43 years since the glorious victory of Yorktown was achieved, in which La Fayette took an active part. It is needless to say, that that day should be celebrated as a jubilee on his arrival.

In this city, we can only say that all ranks, classes, and denominations, without distinction of party, will most cheerfully unite in celebrating the event. Independent of a splendid military display, in which, we expect, will be concentrated the whole military force in a circumference of 50 miles, to be reviewed by the General and probably amounting to 20,000 men under arms, he will be invited to a great civic feast at the Banqueting Room in the City Hall, which, we learn, will be illuminated at night, together with the whole city. A grand salute of 100 guns will be fired from Fort La Fayette, together with salutes from the batteries and ships of war in the harbour, and the decoration of all the shipping. Every place of amusement throughout the city will have something appropriate on the occasion, and in the hilarity of the occasion, the day will equal the Fourth of July.

Independent of the great debt of gratitude due to La Fayette, it is desirable to prove to Europe that republics are not ungrateful.

U. S. BANK.—The Directors of the Bank of the United States have declared a semi-annual dividend of two and a half per cent. payable on or after the 15th instant, either at the Parent Bank, or at such Offices as the stockholders may elect.

It is said that a surplus is retained, of upwards of $200,000—the dividend might therefore have been extended to 3 per cent. leaving an excess of near $30,000; but the moderate and cautious policy of the board will doubtless, be approved by the great body of the stockholders.—The operation of the late loan, to the government, and other profitable dependencies, may fairly lead to encouraging expectations among those who are interested in the condition of this Institution. Nat. Gaz.

ANOTHER PRIZE PAID.—One eighth of No. 20835 a Capital prize of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS drawn in the Grand State Lottery on the 24th ult. has this moment been presented and the CASH instantly paid as usual. We have permission to mention the owner's name, Mr. Anthony Davis residing near Warrenton, N. Carolina—the ticket was presented for payment thro' the medium of a mercantile house in this City.
